Dr. Butch Losey is a professor for Xavier University's Department of Counseling and Owner of Waybridge Counseling Services in Cincinnati Ohio.

Dr. Losey works with couples around infidelity recovery, high conflict and intimacy. He was trained using Milan reflecting teams and the Satir Growth model and uses these approaches with couples and to teach graduate students.

His recent book Creating an Effective Couple Therapy Practice (Routledge, 2017) discusses the gap between efficacy outcomes and clinical effectiveness and specific interventions that can increase effectiveness in therapy.

Please Note:

Please bring a laptop or other portable device. All participants will receive a link on the day of the workshop that will include all the tools and documents for the workshop, many which will be used during the workshop. Please make sure to do this because it will enhance your understanding of the material and increase your involvement in the activities.
